AGE DISCRIMINATION SCAMS – DON'T BE A VICTIM

The Daily Telegraph has reported on one of Partners' cases in which Gordon Turner of this law firm uncovered a major campaign by a supposed 'job applicant' who achieved a number of pay offs from companies by making bogus applications for jobs which advertised for amongst other things 'recent graduates'.

Investigations uncovered that the individual concerned had been putting in multiple applications across the UK in the hope of tripping up unwitting employees and profiting from their lack of knowledge about how to make your job adverts age discrimination proof.
